

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No. 649307

Prof. Dr. Irene Schneider (Göttingen University - Seminar für Arabistik/Islamwissenschaft) and Dr. Nahed Samour (Lichtenberg-Kolleg, Göttingen Institute of Advanced Study), invite you to the:

Double Talk “Female Judges – Experiences, Successes and Challenges in Palestine and Germany”

This lecture will combine the talks of two experts on law and gender:

Judge SOMOUD AL-DAMIRI (Palestine) and Prof. MARIA WERSIG (Germany)

Since 2009, Judge Somoud al-Damiri is one of the first female Muslim judges working in Shari'a courts in the Middle East. At the same time, she is public prosecutor in family law in Ramallah. Professor Maria Wersig is a German Professor of law in social work at the University of Applied Science in Dortmund. Her work focuses on law and gender and anti-discrimination legislation. Both will assess the role of female judges in their legal orders and the question of anti-discrimination for women.

Wednesday June 27th, 6.00 – 8.00 PM

University of Göttingen, Lecture Hall ZHG 002
Platz der Göttinger Sieben 5, 37073 Göttingen

The lecture is organized in the frame of the activities of the HERA project Understanding Shari'ah: Past Perfect, Imperfect Present www.usppip.eu
